

Possibilities for primary students, aged 4-12 years, relocating to the Netherlands

This indicates a possible change of route for students that find the acquisition of a second language too challenging

STIP is a foundation for public primary education in Hilversum. This chart indicates the possibilities within this school Board for expat students relocating to a school in Hilversum.